VOICEOVER

Event description:

Tired of all the technical stuff?? And just to have some fun here is the voice event for you. A video will be played in the screen in front of the participant without audio, the performer has to dub the video with optimal lip sinking. This is a fun event where serious movie punchline scenes could be made into a comedy scene or funny scenes could be made serious. All depends on the performers. So what are you waiting for come lets dub!
