Carnival games

Life is short, go to the carnival

A carnival game is a game of chance or skill that can be seen at a traveling carnival, charity fund raiser, amusement arcade and amusement park, or on a state and county fair midway. They are also commonly played on holidays.

Carnival games are usually operated on a "pay per play" basis. Most games offer a small prize to the winner. Prizes may include items like stuffed animals, toys, or posters. Continued play is encouraged as multiple small prizes may be traded in for a larger prize. Multiplayer games JUGGLING BALLONS is one example may change the size of the prize with the number of players. In a more difficult game, including the "Baseball and Basket" or "Stand the Bottle", a large prize may be awarded to any winner.

Games of skill

Games of skill are another favourite carnival game. These games may test a players aim at hitting a target with either a ball or a weapon. Some games of this type are the Archery Dart or the Balloon and Dart game.

Games of chance

Games of chance are favourite carnival games. A random outcome gives all players the chance of winning a prize. An example of a carnival game of chance is the Ring toss game.
